Add Skills & Strength

Visitor will see as “Skills & Strength”

You Can add 19 skills, Strength & Special abilities.

Sometimes recruiters scan profiles to know skills, interests, specialties, strengths etc. Your strongest, most desirable targeted skills list will be more effective than one that's long and overwhelming. Keep in mind you develop skills in everything from work experience to education and training, hobbies, extracurricular activities, volunteer work and even self-study. This can help boost your resume and make more attractive to potential employers or self employment / part time work.
